Time Flew By So Quickly
By Judy Muldowney
We can't begin to tell you
Just how loved you are
We can't believe how time has flown
And how you've come so far

Forgive us when we stop and stare
And tears fall from our eyes
Time flew by so quickly
Sure took us by surprise

Now here you stand before us
A respectful, honest man
Strong-willed and determined
Who always says, "I can"

We flip though all your notes and cards
And pictures that you drew Recall your quips and humor
'Unique', dear son, that's you!

There are no doubts within our minds
That you'll indeed succeed
Your future holds so much in store
But 'that smile' is all you need

You've always been so gentle,
So loving, kind and giving
Having you as our son,
Is another term for 'living'

No matter where life leads you
No matter what you do
We'll always be your biggest fans
And we'll be here for you.

We are so very proud of you! Love, Mom & Dad

Marc Luongo

Marc what a joy it has been to watch you become a bright, sensitive and kind young man.

Congratulations and Happy Graduation.

We love you to the moon and back,

Benjamin Dombrowski

"Here is a breathing body and a beating heart, strong legs, bones and teeth, and two clear eyes to read the world, she whispered, and here, I said, is the lanyard I made at camp.
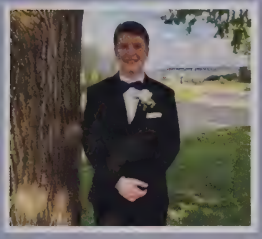
And here, I wish to say to her now, is a smaller gift - not the worn truth that you can never repay your mother, but the rueful admission that when she took the two-toned lanyard from my hand, I was as sure as a boy could be that this useless, worthless thing I wove out of boredom would be enough to make us even." (from "The Lanyard" by Billy Collins)

Benjamin, you continue to make us prouder than we could imagine. We're so much more than even. All our love, Mom and Dad

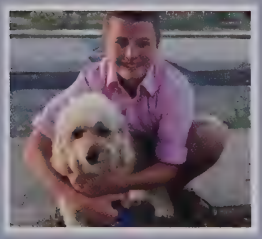
Patrick Reid



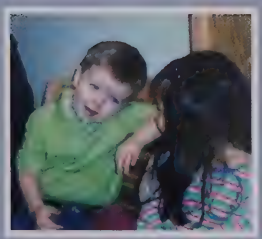
Congratulations Patrick! I am very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. From your days at Woodside and Manomet Elementary to Rising Tide, your adventures in and out of school have surely been memorable. With each milestone, I've watched you become a bright, insightful and wise young man before my very eyes.

You have always had a big imagination—from the days of digging the most gigantic holes in our backyard, to making a vast assortment of "gadgets" out of random things, or catching that state award winning fish (and many more thereafter), to searching for crabs under every rock at Priscilla Beach for hours upon end. Your Handyman Patrick's bike caboose made by Pepere was yet another way you could use your own "real" tools to fix things!

Your sense of search, quest and treasure has made you an incredible Sea Cadet for the last eight years where you have risen to the many challenges and learned so much. Your zest for history and world politics fascinates me. Your love of our country makes me proud. I am sure you will succeed in whatever life presents, and you will go make amazing things happen. Life is a journey, hard work and persistence will pay off, seize every opportunity.



I love you to the moon and back!
Love, Mom



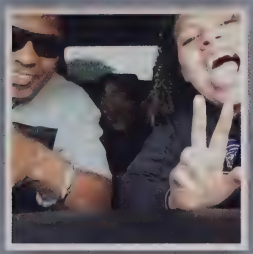
Josh Malloy

Dear Josh,

I can't believe you are graduating from high school, where did the time go? 18 years have flown by so quickly, I felt like there wasn't enough time to do all the things that a dad and son should do. I'm so proud of you and the person that you have become. As you graduate from school, just remember the learning never stops. School is there to prepare you for the world, as best as it can, but it is up to you to learn the lessons of life. The learning never stops, it officially begins now. Do your best, show up on time and don't forget to smile and say thank you. We are all so proud of you.

Love Dad, Pat, Lily, Tess, Chrissy, Moe, Peter, Carla, Marcello, and Poliana

Kayleigh Thompson



Fearless! It has always been your middle name! Since we can remember, you have faced life with the tenacity that will take you everywhere you want to go! Never, ever, ever change you! You are a rockstar! Never, ever stop dancing! And always, always remember Kaylacha. Everything you need is already inside you.

Beautiful, caring, loving, full of joyous energy, lover of life and of people. You have a heart for God. It has been an adventure to be a part of your growth. Guess what? I LOVE YOU! - Andrew

Sophia Kozlowsky

Sophia- From the minute you came into this world, we knew the time would go by much too quickly. You've worked incredibly hard, been to incredible places, and taken advantage of every opportunity that has come your way to experience life. We couldn't be more proud of you and are so thankful for being able to watch you grow up.

As this chapter of your life come to an end and you begin the next, we wanted to leave you with these thoughts as you think about where you've been and where you'll be going.

Love- Buba the Great and The Landlord for nine months.

"Oh The Places You'll Go!
You have brains in you head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the one who'll decide Where to go...

You're off to Great Places!
Today is your day!
Your mountain is waiting,
So... get on your way!"

-Dr. Suess

"Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines, sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover."

-Mark Twain

Olivia Kelliher

Ryan Freed

Ryan, the moment you were born we were filled with emotion. We looked at you with all the love a parent has in their hearts and thought, "Oh my God, what have we gotten ourselves into! Seriously, that's a baby we're taking home." (Full disclosure, we had lost our pet cat probably three times. In fact, one time it was over a week before we even realized she was missing so you can understand our apprehension.) Fortunately, we quickly found our stride and being your parents has been the best part of every day since. You are truly our absolute favorite person in the world, which is why we're probably just going to go ahead and enroll at your college. (I mean, what kid doesn't want that right?? Can't wait roomie!) But if for some reason that doesn't work out just know that we're always here for you, we love you and we're so proud of the amazing person you've become.

Mackayla Gouvia

From the moment you were born, with those big blue eyes
We felt like we played the lottery, and won the grand prize
We were instantly amazed by our little shining star
Terrified to go home and buckle you in the car
You have brought us so much love and joy
Wanting to brush your pretty curls, but such a tomboy
From playing in mud to climbing trees
No time for dresses, I think you'll agree
The days of elementary school have long passed
From a broken ankle with a pink cast
The excitement of the fourth grade egg drop
I wish I could have frozen time and made it stop
You continued to grow and amaze us every day
Middle school was terrifying for us I have to say
You struggled a little, in yourself you didn't believe I knew without a doubt you would soar and achieve
High school a time for growth and independence
Your wings started to sprout, you were less dependent
You started your first job at 15, you were Peru bound
We counted every second until you were home, feet on the ground
We are so proud of the young adult you are
We hope you reach for the sky our shining star
One can dream my little butterfly
We love you up to the moon and back and as big as the sky

Mackayla,
It seems as though we blinked and you went from being an inquisitiv toddler to a beautiful young adult about to embark on a new chapter of your life. You have shown us what it means to be strong, determined, resilient, and above all what a pure heart of gold looks like. Such a kind and loving big sister to Emily, the days of playing dolls, and drawing with chalk have long since passed, but those memories we will hold in our hearts forever. We are beyond proud o you and your accomplishments. It has not always been easy for you, but you have persevered and shown what it means to be a fighter. W love you more than words could ever express. As this one chapter closes and the next begins, always stay true to yourself. You are an amazing person and we are proud to call our daughter. We are excite to see where the next chapter takes you in the journey of life.
We Love You,
Mama, Dada, and Emily

Sofie Koonce

On the day you were born and our eyes met for the first time, I knew the world would never be the same. It has been my life's joy to watch you learn and grow into the accomplished Renaissance Woman you are today. You have proved to be the perfect travel companion and I have enjoyed our adventures together. It is now time for you to head out on your own adventure and the world is your oyster, an expression originated by your bae William Shakespeare. The world is full of potential and all it takes to find your way is hard work and persistence. You are young, you have the time, you are not locked down to any location or occupation, so you are free to seek your destiny wherever you want, and you have the skills necessary - your intelligence, your creativity, your resilience and your sense of humor - to do it.

Love, Mom.

Casey, “Ca”, “Case”, “Beblin”, “Bubs”, “Little Champion”,
From the moment you literally flew into this world like Superman, you made us all proud. You faced many changes in your young life and adapted to them with grace and strength that most adults don't have. We are proud of the choices you have made for yourself. You are the best son, brother, and friend that anyone could ask for. As you reach this tremendous milestone, take a moment to enjoy it, but this is just the beginning of the journey for you. There’s so much more to do and so much more story to write. Always trust in God and believe in yourself as much as we believe in you. We love you, we are proud of you and will always be.

Surround yourself with good influences, explore endless possibilities, don't be afraid of failure or to ask for help, take chances and above all find happiness. Life can be challenging at times but just remember what is important and always keep a positive mindfulness and your path will be well lived.

We love you! Best Wishes,

Mom, Dad and Olivia

"In the end, this is your journey. Live the life you imagined."
Ashley Marris

As we sit at the end of this road and the beginning of the next it's humbling to us to see how far you've come. It seems like just yesterday you were watching Bob The Builder and digging up the yard. We love you so much and are so thankful for the joy you've brought us. You make us smile and laugh often and are always ready with a witty pun or a dank meme. Take this next challenge and give it all you've got. Take chances and be ready to fail. Most of all get out there and live this life; enjoy every step of this journey. We love you to the moon and back and could not be more proud. Finally, always remember that we'll be here for you, of course, "taxation is theft."

Love, Mom and Dad.

Adie Rich

Adie Bugs...

It is difficult to capture and put in paragraph all that you have brought to our home and to our lives since the day we brought you back from the hospital. As a little girl you were always curious, always happy, and as you grew up you kept those qualities and added more. You set goals for yourself whether for soccer, academics or even for summer jobs. (I remember you started in 5th grade talking about and saving for a trip to Italy which was not happening until 8th grade!) You have become are very determined person and you have affected our house in a way that inspires your younger siblings to approach life, with determination, and with infectious enthusiasm. We're so proud of you and who you are and what you've done. We are so happy to be have you in our lives. We will be sad to have you gone and off to school and then "life", but we know the rest of the world needs some bright stars like you.

We love you 80 Rich!
